STAR WITNESS TRIES TO WRECK BEER PARLOR

The sequel to the recent trial in mayor's court when one Turner was up for driving while intoxicated and given a second trial when the jury of three men and three women could not agree on a verdict was an early Sunday morning escapade at the Xenia Ave. beer parlor.

Rachel Tipton, married, went on a tirade and came near breaking up the house as the boys say in street parlance. Chief Marshall was called and had a tough wrestle with the feminine rough-houser before he landed her in jail. She had broken glasses and overturned tables and even customers shouted for the officer to use his leaded stick on the offender, who had become intoxicated on 3.2 beer which the evidence of a former trial in mayor's court was branded as non-intoxicating.

Rachel was a star witness in the Turner hearing in mayor's court last week and one who knew 3.2 would not intoxicate.

In as much as the village has no accommodations for female prisoners, an effort was made to get Rachel in the county jail but that department was full of registrants of the female brand. Even Xenia City's brand new and up-to-date female prison department had to decline another guest. To meet the requirements of the law, it was up to Chief Marshall to be host to his guest for the night. He says he informed her if she wanted anything during the night he would call her mamma and mamma had promised the Chief she would come on notice if the daughter was in need of any special service. But Rachel was not behind the bars long until she fell asleep and was unconscious of her inward bath of 3.2 until after eight o'clock Sunday morning.

Rachel probably went without her Sunday morning devotions unless the Chief conducted the class. She remained a guest of the village until about three in the afternoon, when the sum of $35 bail money was deposited for Rachel's appearance Monday. In such cases the bail is forfeited rather than face the mayor or stand trial. Rachel will get another chance to face Mayor Abel if she is a star witness for Turner. Having forfeited her bail on a charge of disorderly and intoxicated, Rachel may have to word her testimony in a more technical way to give the jury something to ponder over more than just a charge of intoxication on 3.2. Greene countians might just as well make up their mind that under the New Deal beer parlor with feminine trade we must have more and better equipped jails with modern, tonsorial facilities. The old time jail is no place for the modern woman of New Deal ways. Even Mrs. Roosevelt may touch on that important topic in her "My Day" column.

Farmers' Mutual Aid Holds Election

The 67th annual meeting of the Clark County Farmers Mutual Protection and Aid Association, was held Saturday in Springfield, a large number of Greene countians being members of the group.

O. T. Battin, Selma, who has served 28 years as president declined re-election and Minard Evislitz, R. 4, was elected in his place. Members expressed deep appreciation to Battin for his long term of service.

C. F. Stewart, Springfield, was re-elected treasurer, Clarence L. Miller, Springfield, secretary and John Ary, Xenia, director.

Sgt. Donald Fields A German Prisoner

Word has been received that Sgt. Donald E. Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Fields, this place, is now a German war prisoner, according to the International Red Cross.

Ten days ago he was reported as missing in action and thought to have been killed. He was taken prisoner July 7th. He was inducted in the service Oct. 9, 1942, and has been an aerial gunner. His wife, Mrs. Betty Judy Fields resides here.

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION BUYS 1,000 ACRE FARM

The Atlanta Constitution, one of the most influential papers in the south has just purchased a farm of 1,000 acres. The announcement says: "Operations on the farm will be studied from the ground up by the newspaper's staff in order that its members may better and more understandingly serve the vast farming population on whom they depend for their professional and economic existence."

Sales Tax Repeal May Not Materialize For Nov. Election

The Herald gets information that there will be few if any petitions circulated in Greene County seeking signatures for repeal of the state sales tax. A number of names were certified from this county to the Secretary of State, Edward Hummel. We have the list and we are informed that a good part of the list were from Xenia and members of the CIO union.

Word now is that many if not all have refused to have anything to do with the referendum.

The Herald will publish the names not only of those who circulate such petitions but those who sign also.

The movement is backed by the CIO and is more of a New Deal movement to re-elect Roosevelt, and also Mayor Lausche, Cleveland, who is the Democratic candidate for governor.

Should the sales tax be dropped the main source of finance for old age pensions and school funds would be out. There was little chance of the sales tax repeal carrying in the state but it would not be impossible to get 1,700,000 names for the referendum.

Secretary of State Hummel has "told" that petitions can no longer be left at places of business for people to sign. The person who carries the petition must swear that he saw each name written by a legal voter.

Gov. Bricker Pleads For Moral Values

LAKEVILLE—A plea for preservation of spiritual and moral factors of American life was made Thursday by Governor John W. Bricker, Republican, vice presidential candidate, in an address Thursday before the Lakeside Bible Class.

"If we are to remain a great nation we must emphasize the spiritual and moral side of our lives," Bricker declared.

"We think a lot today about when our boys are coming back, but are we ready to receive them? Are they going to find the spiritual values that will be needed in the postwar world? "We pray for our boys but perhaps it would be better for us to pray for ourselves that we might have courage to keep America the kind of a place to which they will want to return," the governor asserted.

COLLEGE NEWS

Rev. Marion S. Hostetler, '32, Salt Lake City, Utah, is spending the week with his parents, Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Hostetler. Thursday he accompanied his parents to visit his sister's family in Columbus, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and children.

Mrs. Zine Piper and children returned Tuesday from Almy, Ill., after laying to rest the mortal remains of the husband and father who was killed in an accident in Fairfield last week. Mrs. Wm. Boyce of the College Farm is a daughter.

Prof. Hostetler, who has been on the sick list for two weeks, will take up his work for the finish of the second summer term, Monday.

John Sanders, C. C. Senior, who has been in the Navy flying school since June last year is enjoying a furlough. John opines old C. C. looks good to him for a fourth year but that is out until the Hun and the Nip bite the dust. He has been in training at the University of Penn for some time.

Farm Items: A tool shed for the proper care of machinery was completed recently. The 100 trees of the young orchard are thriving in spite of the drought. The herd of heifers is looking more like prize winners each day.

Students and faculty will enjoy a picnic on the campus tonight. One or more get-togethers are held each term.

SUMMER SCHOOL COM- MENCEMENT, AUGUST 18—

The annual Summer School Commencement will be held in College Chapel, Friday, Aug. 18 at 2:30 P.M. The public is cordially invited to attend. The speaker will be Prof. L.L. Hurley, the newly elected superintendent of the Public Schools. The following young ladies will receive three-year diplomas: Misses Pauline Ashmore, Barbara June Ervin, Maxine Heintz, Mary Montgomery, and Doris Gaynelle Williams. Miss Helen C. O'Bryen will be graduated from the four year elementary course with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education.

The date is Friday, Aug. 18, 2:30 P.M., the place, College Chapel, Come!

Communists Keep New Deal Phone Busy Says Martin Dies

Chairman Martin Dies, D., Texas, has filed his report on the CIO political action committee which is branded as the political arm of the New Deal administration in the fourth term campaign. His investigating committee uncovered telegrams and phone calls between government officials and the Communist CIO-PAC.

The report proves violation of the Hatch act prohibiting participation of government employees in politics.

Sidney Hillman, CIO boss, made the most phone calls. C. B. Baldwin, who resigned his job as administrator of the farm security administration at $10,000 a year is Hillman's chief assistant.

Dies recommends prosecution at once but will not get it because Roosevelt dares not order Biddle to call Hillman or Baldwin before a federal grand jury.

Some of the names reported in the Dies report as having connection by phone or telegram were Biddle, Hillman, Perkins, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Baldwin.

The CIO committee had 23 phone calls to the White House alone. The conversation was with three of the President's $10,000 a year assistants, Niles, Daniels, Mellett, and Judge S. Roseman, Roosevelt's legal counsel.

Others being called by the Communists were Elmer Davis, OWI director at $10,000 a year Chester Bowles, OPA fixer, salary $12,000 a year, Mordecai Ezekiel, economic advisor, Secretary of Agriculture, Bernard Bernstein, treasury department, salary, $9,000; Beas Goodykoontz, assistant commissioner education, federal security administration, $6,750.

Note the absence of Anglo-Saxon names in this partial list, the original reported was 71 names. Telegrams were seized from company offices as were telephone records. Many of the telegrams urged money to defeat certain Democrats who opposed the New Dealers.

Followers of the AAA and the FSA might give some consideration to the political company they are keeping.

FARMERS DISAGREE WITH 3A HEAD ON CROP REPORT

Last week we quoted a statement of AAA Chairman Dadds, Washington, that we would have an abundance of food for individuals as well as feed for livestock and this statement was made after a trip through the corn belt. Just how much a man can see of farm crops riding a government war buggy ten thousand feet above the earth is a problem.

If you read E. A. Drake's column in this issue you may get another idea in case you might have been influenced by the Dodd aerial trip. The Sun, Springfield, carried many interviews with Clark county farmers last Saturday and some of them will be interesting to our farm readers:

"There's nothing the weather can do now to have the crops," C. E. Rowland says to save the crops. "He is Clark County extension agent and says 75 per cent of the corn crop is gone."

Eastway Farms, owned by E. E. Greiner: "Crop damage reported 60 percent on all crops. Last year we had 60,000 bushels of corn from 90 acres. We will not get 30,000 this year from 110 acres."

Clarence E. Laybourne places the loss at 60 percent to all crops. Harry Cluck: "We are feeding hay to dairy cows the same as in the winter time."

Allen Craig, South Charleston: "60 percent of the corn and pasture are gone for this year. The corn crop is in worse shape than in 1938."

O. D. Brown, Union National Mills: "Damage placed at 50 percent to all crops including fruits."

Coon Chase Sunday Near Jamestown

Prizes totalling $150 will be offered at coon dog field trials at the Jamestown Gun Club, off Route 35, this side of Jamestown, Sunday beginning at 12 o'clock noon. The event will be sponsored by Stephens and Campbell of Jamestown.

Prizes will include $50 and $25, respectively, for the first and second trees and $50 and $25, respectively for the first and second lines. There will be a special heat run for inexperienced dogs.

Stove Explodes For Sunday A. M. Fire

The fire department was called out early Sunday morning when a coal oil stove exploded at the home of Joe Jones, off East st. The damage was placed at $100, mostly by smoke. The cottage is owned by Harry Shull.

RAINS TOO LATE AND TOO LITTLE—

Last weeks scattered showers helped, but they were too scanty and too late. Prospects for corn and soybeans are gloomy. Feed prospects are not bright since most seedings of clover and alfalfa have perished and hay prospects for next year are poor. Pastures have dried up. A heavy liquidation of live stock, particularly sheep and cattle is under way. Milk production in the Dayton area dropped 18 percent from June according to John W. Collins, Cedarville Typo, vice president of the Miami Valley Cooperative Milk Producers Association.

To salvage as much feed as possible some farmers are beginning to cut corn and put it in silos and cutting soybeans for hay. Most corn is beyond help, however soybeans will recover if early rains come. Beans are beginning to drop their leaves, pods are short and scattered and prospects for seed formation are not good. However it always rains and, as usual, we will grumble about the wet weather.

JULY RAINFALL DETER- MINES CORN YIELD—

There is a very definite relationship between rainfall and corn yield, especially the July rainfall. Corn planted in a normally moist seedbed will get through June with little rain, and dry surface soil permits easy weed control. However a dry July means real trouble for the corn crop. Studies show that the most critical period in determining corn yields is the week before and the two weeks following corn tasseling. Lack of moisture in those weeks is more serious than other equal lengths of time during the growth of the plant.

Every inch of rainfall deficiency in July reduces corn yields at least five percent. High temperatures intensify the damage. For a period of 75 years in Ohio, July had an average rainfall of 4.01 inches. The official report on July 1944, rainfall measured at Xenia was 1.91 inches.

RAM SALE AND EXCHANGE—

Greene County is one of the leading purebred livestock breeding counties of the nation, and this is particularly true of sheep. Greene County flocks are nationally known and have furnished breeding stock to the four corners of the continent. Let's use more of these good Greene County purebred rams in Greene County flocks.

Sheep men state that a good purebred ram is more than half the flock. He represents many generations of careful selection and possesses greater power to stamp his type on the lamb crop. Many of our herds and flocks have been thrown in reverse by using scrub sires. Why not throw your flock in high gear by buying a good purebred ram.

CLUB CALVES BRING AVERAGE OF $19.73—

An average price of $19.73 per hundred weight was received by 4-H club members for their baby calves at the auction sale at the Fair Friday afternoon. This is an excellent price and as usual local butchers and slaughterers gave their full support. Walter Culp purchased the grand champion steer of Ronald Griffith for 29c per pound or $258.10. W. H. Brenner purchased the reserve champion from Marcus Townsley for 20.5c per pound or $167.30. Closey Anderson bought three calves, one from Oscar Bradfute, and two from Marcus Townsley for a total of $474.34.

The Kroger Grocery and Baking Co. purchased seven calves for a total of $1171.33.

Koogler and Stanley, auctioneers, were in charge of the sale, donating their services to the club members. The juicy steaks from these prime calves will soon be found in Greene County meat markets. The support given these Junior feeders today, will encourage them to become the beef breeders and feeders of tomorrow, thus assuring the homes of the future an ample supply of good beef.

60 COMMITTEEMEN BOOST MEN'S CAMP—

More than 60 township committeemen are hard at work in securing enrollees for the eighth annual Farm Men's camp to be held at the 4-H Club camp site Saturday evening and Sunday, August 12-13. The camp will open Saturday afternoon at 4 P. M. with sports contests under the direction of Franklin Boets and Albert Anderson.

TUESDAY IS WASTE PAPER COLLECTION DAY

Tuesday is waste paper day. Tuesday is the day the Boy and Girl Scouts will call at your home for your contribution to the war cause by turning the old paper and magazines. Your government needs all waste paper. You may have a box of old letters or records that are no longer needed and in storage in the attic. It will be to discard them now and you will aid in removing a fire hazard.

If possible have your papers and magazines in separate packages. The Scouts can get a better price for the magazines and books than old papers.

Then do not leave your papers on the street or your lawn unless they are in a box or tied so they will not be scattered over the community by the wind.

Waste and scrap paper are valuable because your own groceries and cakes, your suit boxes, are made of waste paper. Then the government must have an enormous quantity for shipping various needed goods to the boys over seas. There must be paper packing for different explosives.

After all you can see how valuable waste paper is at this time.

We have had several drives here in this movement but the one Tuesday is just as important as any of the others.

Mrs. Harold Reinhard will take all telephone calls if you will call her residence, 6-2432. By doing so you will enable the committee to route the truck to save time and gasoline in picking up the bundles.

All of the profit goes to the Boy and Girl Scouts. Have your paper in shape that it can be handled with ease next Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson Died At Age 102

In Elkton, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harvey have returned from Elkton, Ky., and Huntington, W. Va., where they were called by the death of an aunt of the former, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, who lived to be 102 years of age.

She is survived by two brothers, W. E. Weathers and James H. Weathers, Elkton, Ky. The funeral and burial was at Huntington, W. Va.

The deceased had a remarkable memory and had retained her mental faculties until a few months ago, being able to read and discuss events of today beside recalling historical events of the years past.

When she was 85 years of age she took her first airplane ride of an hour and upon returning was so thrilled she wanted to take another trip immediately.

Fair Board Members Are Re-elected

Three directors of the Greene County Agricultural Board were re-elected for three year terms: R. K. Haines, Caesar Creek Twp., Weller K. Haines, Sugar Creek Twp., and Harold Van Pelt, Spring Valley.

Only purchasers of 1945 tickets were eligible to vote. The vote was tabulated Tuesday. The fair this year is reported to have been a financial success.

Site Chosen For New State Fair Grounds

The Ohio State Fairgrounds Relocation Committee has recommended the purchase of a new site adjacent to the Don Scott airport, northwest of Columbus and six miles from the State House.

The site will be seven times as large as the present. It is bounded by four roads and the C. & O. railroad on the east side. From this part of the state patrons will not have to enter Columbus to get to the grounds.

The site covers 1,000 acres against the 150 used at present. This will provide plenty of parking space for patrons right on the grounds.

Progressive Club Dinner Meet Monday

Plans are gradually taking shape for the Progressive Club annual Field Day, Labor Day, Sept. 4. There will be a day of interesting contests and sport events that will attract young and old. The program will be announced in full at a later date. The day of fun and frolic will end with a dance at Alford Gym with the Progressive Club orchestra providing the music. The Progressive Club will hold a dinner meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock to discuss arrangements.

Milk Producers Ask U. S. For Higher Milk Prices In Drought

The Miami Valley Cooperative Milk Producers Association has petitioned the War Food Administration for an increase in milk prices due to the dry weather and feed outlook. As you drive through the country you see farmers and dairymen feeding hay harvested but a few weeks ago for winter use. This means that the dairy interests will have just that much less feed for winter use.

Just imagine your grandfather having to get down on his knees and beg for a living price for his milk or to be permitted to sell a bale of hay, a pig. The dairy interests are between the milk trust and the New Deal Communists. They should go on a sit-down strike and pour the milk into the pig trough for ten days. They would then get some recognition for a striker today attracts more attention with or outside the government than any law aiding farmer. Grandpa's spirit of '76 must have died the year the New Deal was born.

Shot Gun Halts Two Peach Thieves

It took a shot gun shot or two to halt peach thieves at the Nagley Fruit Farm several nights ago. W. W. Miller, tenant on the farm made his rounds after a trip to town and discovered two persons helping themselves to peaches that were not ripe enough for market.

Both thieves started to run when the first shot was fired but the second brought results, one evidently having been peppered plenty.

Miller used his own court methods for the infractions by the two Springfielders. One was being turned over to the sheriff and the other was paying ten dollars in cash for the green fruit already pulled. The two paid the ten dollars and were liberated.

Capt. Frank Cornwell Killed In France

Word has been received that Capt. Frank H. Cornwell, was killed in action in France. He was a son of Col. O. H. Cornwell, former chief of police in Xenia, and now on leave from the State Bureau of Criminal Identification at London Prison Farm, who is also in war service.

Wind and Hail Hit Ross Township

The rain, electrical and windstorm, the first the eastern section of the county has had for some weeks, did much to revive the corn crop in that section but the hail also did its work in damaging the corn. The worst of the damage on the Federal pike was on the Neal W. Hunter farm and the Andrew farm across the road, tenanted by Ernest Long.

About a dozen large trees on the old Brock farm, now owned by Mr. Hunter, were destroyed by the wind.

Two Xenia Boys Sent To Prison

Juvenile Judge W. B. McCallister, Jr., on Tuesday sentenced Delbert Grooms 17, Xenia, to an indeterminate formatory, following arrest for attack on a young Xenia woman last week.

Groom when arrested was out on bond awaiting grand jury action for gasoline from the Hughes auto wrecking yard.

Another Xenia boy, aged 16, who was with Grooms in the assault case, was committed to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster.

KENSINGTON CLUB PICNIC WILL BE HELD AUGUST 17

The Kensington Club picnic will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clemans, Thursday, Aug. 17 at 7 P. M.

DEMOCRATS QUIT IN CLINTON

M. R. Denver, banker, former congressman, who has been chairman of the Clinton County Democratic Executive committee for 49 years, and G. C. Barnes, who has been secretary have both resigned their places.

N. Regan, farmer, was chosen chairman. The Democrats have no county ticket this year. The party is torn to fragments over the manner in which draft deferments have been handled. The political situation in the county is so hot three different draft boards have resigned or refused to serve. The county now has no draft board and Gov. Bricker was asked to aid in bringing the two elements together.

SEWERAGE IS PROBLEM FOR VILLAGE COUNCIL

Village council in regular session Monday evening had several matters of unusual importance before it for consideration. The contract for street repair was let to the Johnson Co., of Wilmington and work will start the last of the month. The improvement is to be confined to resurfacing of a number of streets that are breaking due to the excessive heat this summer and would suffer greater damage once freezing weather set in this winter.

The question of sanitary plumbing for the jail was discussed and the committee instructed to get definite bids. The mayor's receipts for the month for fines amounted to $177.50.

A communication was read from Mr. Tyson of the Ohio Tubular Co., owner of the paper mill property as to certain changes and improvements. Council some weeks ago asked for bids on a sewerage disposal plant but all bids were rejected as they exceeded the engineer's estimates. Council also found another stumbling block when it was found priorities could not be had for certain materials and that we had no labor as we were in a critical labor area.

The following letter was read from Mr. Tyson addressed to the Mayor and council:

For the past year and one half without license or formal agreement your Village has been using the Old Paper Mill flume and property now owned by me for the disposal of Cedarville Village sewerage. The original license between the Village and the Hagar Strawboard Company for the use of this disposal flume required that the Village maintain and repair it.

Since the Spring of 1942 the cleaning of the flume was only fair, although recently, there has been a sincere effort on the part of Chief Marshall in this direction. However, this flume is badly in need of repair and this is the entire responsibility of the Village. For many months the flume going across the bridge by my pump house has leaked badly into Massie's Creek, again at the aqueduct below the Old Mill dam and at several places on down thru the property, particularly where the flume drops thru a pipe from the high to the lower level where a considerable portion of the sewerage flows directly into Massie's Creek, and the rest on my land further down.

The subject matter of this letter is entirely separate and in no way connected with my discussions with Village officials with reference to a permanent solution to the Village sewerage disposal system and should not be confused with it, and the failure of the Village to properly protect my property is building up damage and rental charges for the Village's account.

The village will please consider this letter as formal notice that some action must be taken within the next week to repair and correct in a satisfactory manner to me or I shall be unwillingly forced to take such steps as may be necessary to protect my interests.

It occurs to me that I have been considerate and patient in this matter during the past couple of years but we have reached a point where talk or discussions are meaningless and we have reached a point where talk or discussions are meaningless and immediate action on the part of the Village is indicated.

Mrs. Roosevelt Wants
Military Training
For 3rd World War

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt says she advocates compulsory military training after the war for boys and girls of 18 years, because it would develop citizenship responsibility.

"Our youngsters must get it into their minds that they have a responsibility to their country," she told members of Columbia university's teacher college.

She also remarked that American school systems "have fallen down so terribly in providing instruction in practical self-government."

Ditch Contract Awarded W. C. Iliff

The county commissioners have awarded to W. C. Iliff, a $917 contract for cleaning the Townsley ditch in Cedarville township, two miles east of town and south of route 42. The preliminary cost estimate was $950 and Iliff's bid was the only proposal received. The project is to be completed in 60 days.

ROOSEVELT PANIC JUST AROUND THE CORNER

You read between the lines as the New Dealers fuss over the Kilgore-Murray bill in the Senate, where the administration wants to put some three million government workers on pay and still let off the job with no work to do, following the fall of Germany. The main argument for this bill is we are facing the greatest panic the world ever knew. What an admission in the face of all past claims of the New Dealers! It is now proposed to pay those hordes $35 a week to do nothing, purely a federal scheme to regiment voters.

Senator Walter George, Dem., Georgia, has a different type bill. He would work with the states and by federal aid grant some relief but not a pension to do nothing. If one class is to be cared for what about the small merchant, the small manufacturer and all farmers? The CIO of course wants the Kilgore bill because it would keep in tact the millions of dollars now resting in the union treasury that were collected to aid union members in distress at any time.

The surprising thing admitted is that we must brand the New Deal Communistic theory of government a failure for Roosevelt promised the public we never would have a "depression" under his idea of government. Now, we hear the New Dealers argue among themselves as to the terrible economic consequences we face once Germany quits or is forced to surrender. Why not include business people and farmers in the Santa Claus method of spending? One thing is certain we did not have prosperity during the eight years of WPA and NRA days. The new proposal is not much more than the WPA method of other than you had to report on the job, whether you worked or not was not important. Under the Kilgore-Murray bill you can have breakfast in bed each morning—as long as enough people in the nation keep on producing food and clothing whether they earn a profit by their effort or not. Under the Communistic AAA the farmer can be forced at the end of a gun to keep on producing for the bill provides for regimentation under your "Commander-in-Chief."

It is not likely the Congress will dare to take on such a burden as feeding three million government employees that are to be thrown out of a job. There can be no common-sense government until the nation sends Roosevelt back to Hyde Park and replaces him with one that is practical, has been practical, believes in living within one's income and does not preach the doctrine of hypocrisy, deceit, treachery that Roosevelt has woven into the New Deal theory of government. It is the first administration to glorify a lie or even a broken promise made to an intelligent people for no other purpose than to break that well known Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Lie!"

How can we have the New Deal theme song: "Happy Days Are Here Again", and then talk about panic such as the World has never known, and all this to happen under the New Deal whether Hitler cashes in this week or next month?

WAR BOND SALES AND PATRIOTISM

It has not been so many months ago that New Dealers regarded isolation with individuals, and communities as unpatriotic, though comment may have been by one who is not yet in any branch of the war service. It was easy to refer in a round about way to Republican counties as "unpatriotic" in those days, and more than once such reference was made in our hearing as to Greene county, but always by someone on New Deal payroll.

It is now time not only for reflection but to make some comparisons and if the sale of bonds is a criterion then we take pride in making comparison between Ohio as a state, counties and cities. Certainly the purchase of war bonds should be some measure to gauge patriotism, or should it be? If not, how about the New Deal slackers not in service when their neighbors now serve in all parts of the world?

Greene county has the honor of being the first county in Ohio in the sale of "E" bonds for the Fifth War Bond drive. For this record we should be justly proud and at the same time be the answer to the New Deal "isolation cry" of months ago. If it were possible to make comparison based on accurate figures it is probably the so called "isolationists" may yet be holding more of the bonds purchased than those who were shouting New Dealism. As we scan the list and get reports from various sources, Greene county no doubt has a very low record on the sale or cashing of bonds by individuals, and it is admitted the farmer as a class would be listed as holding by far the largest percent of their purchases. It has been estimated that most of the bonds cashed in the county have been by factory workers and those who are employed by the government. Income-tax paying time is all the proof necessary for the last statement. As for other cities we find the largest sale of bonds is from our metropolitan centers like Cleveland, Detroit, New York, where New Dealism is preached by the New Deal press as taking precedence over all other matters, economic, moral or even the teaching of the Holy Scriptures. The great CIO, the left arm of the New Deal probably through its members have cashed more war bonds at the sixty-day ownership, which is compulsory, than any class or group, yet the Roosevelt's continue to give their blessings, your money and your shirt to anything the union demands.

Now we read that states like New York, the home of our royal family, have not met their bond quota. Even the great city of New York, did not meet its "E" quota. We go west and find that great city of "isolationism", where Mayor Kelly has burned up millions of federal dollars in questionable enterprises for political effect and has landed millions of war contracts for industry, over subscribes all bond quotas. Even Illinois met its quota while we find numerous Democratic states that have not met their quota, especially on the last three drives.

After all can patriotism be measured by bond sales? Not so. Neither can the cry of isolation be the measure against patriotism. The isolation bawl was purely the smoke screen to build bigger and greater for the Communist New Deal and many that could not see it five or ten years ago now realize the actual situation—the victim of New Deal hypocrisy and deceit.

SALARIES FOR FIRESIDE CLERKS

Following a precedent set by former Vice President John Nance Garner and channeled by the easy flow of nepotism long popular with senators and representatives, the wife of Senator Harry S. Truman, Democratic vice presidential nominee, is officially reported as drawing a salary of $4,500 a year as clerk to her husband. This is the highest salary allowed senators' clerks by a kindly treasury. The duties of Mrs. Truman—performed principally at home, according to reports of her husband's aids—are stated by the Senator in a Washington interview to be, in part, as follows: "She is my chief adviser... and I never make any decisions unless she is in on all of them. She also takes care of my personal mail."

When the news of Mrs. Truman's tasks and pay checks reaches the great American home, that stage and scene of fire-side chats and domestic discussions, one can imagine a prompt urge toward revolution by housewives who never before have realized they were performing important clerical duties for which considerable sums are attainable in the capitolian labor market. Every "chief adviser" in a home (and we all know who that adviser is), every one who is in on a husband's decisions (and but one quick guess is needed here), every woman who would gladly take care of her husband's personal mail (the most interesting job imaginable, in some instances), will be likely to file a claim at once for $4,500 annually.—New York Herald Tribune.

HERALD WANT AND SALE ADS PAY

Murder will Out! Now we hear the mission of V. P. Wallace to China and Moscow was to sell the Chinese government—Communism. There is nothing that Roosevelt or Wallace are interested in that Communism. Stalin is the ideal for both. All events tend to prove the statement.

Sen. Clark, anti-New Deal, Missouri Democrat, who defied the New Deal and the CIO lost out at the recent primary. He charges both groups as opposing him because he desired to see the government operated on the Jeffersonian plan, not required to be subjects of the CIO. The Missouri Democrats endorsed Clark, even Sen. Truman, the Democratic nominee for V. P. A light vote and the Pendergast machine worked with the CIO. Now Sen. Clark and the conservative Democrats are up in arms and threaten retaliation in November. Meantime the Republicans see bright hopes of defeating Truman in his own state on the CIO issue.

Philadelphia strike ends! Where was our Commander-in-Chief? How often have you heard the name of Roosevelt connected with this strike? The army was assigned to take over all transportation systems, but you did not read or hear that Roosevelt was behind it. It was Gen. Hayes. The Commander-in-Chief staff was not to be used in strikes where the CIO refused to work when eight negroes were given jobs as bus drivers. As usual when the government takes over any plant the CIO members win their point. You have not read much about the strike situation since the Commander-in-Chief took over the system in the City of Brotherly Love. It was Roosevelt's love for the CIO, not the eight negro bus drivers who were not permitted to work under orders of the Army—and who is Commander-in-Chief?

As far as the negro is concerned he is just so much trading stock to FDR. Even up in Hyde Park no negro could knock at the front door lest he be chased by a butler or a policeman from the property. We hear of another negro labor dispute with the CIO in a Dayton airplane plant. The company needed more lathe men and applied to the McNulty U. S. Employment Service. The company was denied more help because they had negro janitors and window washers that could be used. Several were assigned the jobs in demand of the U. S. agency. All of the negroes were members of the CIO union. Members of the machinists-branch of the CIO protested. The company acting with authority of Mr. Roosevelt stooges in the Employment Agency was soon between a threatened strike to tie up production and the CIO members that refused to permit its own members, though negroes, who paid dues, from taking a job the government agents say should be assigned to lathe work. The Philadelphia situation is much the same as that in Dayton. But neither the Commander-in-Chief, nor Gen. Hayes, have ordered the colored bus drivers to take out their cars. It is just another sample of New Deal duplicity, deceit and lying to the African public.

Meantime the Multiple-millionaire, New Deal Attorney General, puts out a lot of big talk about a federal grand jury. More smoke screen. Bidle himself comes from a family that is credited by making millions from the patrons of the street car companies. His parents were the isolationists of their day that left millions to a son who wants the home owner, the farmer and the white collar worker to pay his share of everything. He is purely a Rooseveltian—spend the other fellow's money but not mine.

We heard an argument a few days ago between a New Dealer and a Republican over the war. It was one of the many cases of the Democratic son being at home while the Republican son was in the South Pacific. Before the argument had gone many minutes the New Dealer had something to say about isolation and patriotism and questioned the patriotism of all that did not carry the New Deal banner. The argument was hot and bordered on personal. Then the Republican sent a shaft that hit under the belt, so to speak. He pointed out the New Dealer had a nephew that was of draft age, had no physical defects and how come he was not carrying a gun in the tropics along with other Greene county boys?

The Republican burning up over the patriotism question stated: "I don't believe I would say much about patriotism. Your party has started more wars in fifty years than any other and you have lost every one. If the history of your family is correct one or more purchased their way out of the Civil War and God knows no Republican started that war but they did finish it with the aid of loyal northern Democrats that would not stand to see the union disrupted by secession. It was your party (Wilson) that started the first World War to end all wars and the present war proves you lost the first. Your president made a public pledge to the nation (for election purposes) that he would never send our boys to fight on foreign soil and now he dares not and has not personally denied his Boston speech, yet a lot of your lesser lights try to glorify his lie to the American parents that lost their boys in France. We did not wait to hear the end of the discussion, if there was one. We could have put in a few suggestions about the patriotic part of the discussion.

The recent fight against Cong. Fish of the Hyde Park District, brings to mind the election two years ago when a citizen of New York City visiting in the county, made the statement in relation to the fight Roosevelt made against Fish. In effect it was that Fish was re-elected not altogether by his own personal popularity by a combination of Republicans and Democrats but for the hatred the District had for the Roosevelt. In each election even in Roosevelt's own ward and precinct, Fish would poll a much larger vote than Roosevelt, whether he was running for governor of New York or president of the United States.

In referring to the patriotism of one party to another, much might be said on both sides. For instance if the New Dealers hold a monopoly on that then we want to discuss members of the Roosevelt family. Where are they in the various battles? Months ago before the exposure of the Coca Cola scandal on the west coast, we heard how one of the royal family was winning all the glory by himself. And then someone let the cat out of the bag by saying one member of the royal family was tending to business, the motion picture and the soft drink, at the time a certain engagement took place. It was the "G. I. Joe's" from all over the country that won the day and it was the "G. I. Jim's" that had word sent back home that his face never again would be seen around the family table. Then a few weeks later we heard about the African campaign when another member of the royal family had won laurels and another and higher commissioned officer from his papa. His art was taking pictures after the smoke had cleared away. Here is a case of loyalty undisputed. Papa is taking care of Elliott. If he ever gets hurt it might be while he is crossing the street to some court-house for a divorce or a marriage license. The royal family has other patriotic sons that we read of. One is reported as "sunshining" down at Miami, Fla. and another is described in New York papers as a patron of an exclusive night club, known to the boys in the street as a beer parlor without New Deal embellishments. The "G. I. Joe's" of course do not get to enjoy much of the royal pastime pleasure. The daily reports coming in show there are a lot of "G. I. Jim's", who have bit the dust "over there" where the idol of the salary

New Dealers, once said in a Boston speech he would never send an American son. The statement at the time was a bold lie and it has been proven many times since. "Pa and Ma's G. I. Jim" know it was a lie. Such is New Deal patriotism.

Our war debt by the end of the year will be 300 billion dollars. England will have a debt of 75 billion dollars, not to include our lease-lend, which is not to be paid under the New Deal Santa Claus rule. Now the British want lease-lend continued at least for a year after victory, whether we have prosperity or another Roosevelt panic of WPA or PWA days. In other words the American people are to be taxed after the war to feed the British. That is what a vote for the New Deal means in November. It is a sample of what Mr. Roosevelt will do for your pocketbook. He will be giving away the money of rich and poor, not his own for his salary and income is so much greater than the average wealthy man that his loss will not be felt. Meantime he will be living in the White House with free cats, light and heat. When he can truly say he is your "Commander-in-Chief."

While there is little New Deal publicity about the International Bank, it is not healthy to have much discussion on another plan to milk this nation by the British. That is the New Deal International Bank. The idea is not of U. S. origin. It was drawn up by the British Minister of Finance, who came over here to absorb some of our "free-gift" air. He was stabled at the White House at your expense for a number of months. He is Lord Keynes by name. The gracious giver of everything, (except mine), had the New Deal take over at government expense a ramshackle summer hotel at Bretton Woods, N. H. Then our lord and master of the White House ordered new plumbing, new light fixtures, new draperies, beds and bedding and the execution of the outside toilets, erected long before the era of the modern Roosevelt privy. By this time a couple of inside New Dealers knowing what was going on, slipped up to New Hampshire, flashed a handful of Uncle Sam's money in the owner's face and the deal was on. The hotel is now a famous summer resort at rates that run from $10 to $25 a day. Guests sleep in beds paid for out of your income tax money. There is no need of further review of the world bank. It is just a common policy loan shop without the customary "three-balls" hanging over the door. First Congress has to find our ten, fifteen or twenty billion dollars. England will not be able to put in much so we are to loan her the money. Then she is to make her future loans from her bank operated by her citizenry on our money. If that is not pulling the coat of the American cow for all its worth, someone should find another excuse for the International Bank. That's

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

THE PRIEST IN THE LIFE OF ISRAEL

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 2:27-36; 35: 4: 12-13.

GOLDEN TEXT—For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God.—Hebrews 5:1.

Failure to observe God's law inevitably brings disaster. That is true in the family, and in the nation. It follows even though the man who sins is in a high and favored position in God's service.

Our lesson which brings before us the work of the priest in Israel also reminds us of the sacred relationship of father and son. These are important matters inviting our careful study.

I. A Holy Calling: (2:27, 28). Eli was the high priest in Israel, an office ordained of God, and by Him established in the household of Aaron. The priest was to stand between God and man, to seek to His forgiveness for the sins of the people, and His grace and mercy upon them. He was to teach them the law of God and to seek for them divine guidance. He was subject to special laws, and had great privileges of service.

Such a man must not only be holy himself, but unusually diligent about properly rearing his sons who would follow him in this office, which was by God's ordinance an hereditary one. He had to be both a good minister and a good father. Eli was the former, but he failed as a father. In the New Testament, Christ became our High Priest (Heb. 7:26; 9:11), and those who minister for Him are to bring men to Him—the "one Mediator between God and Man" (1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 9:15). In this new covenant the minister has a high and holy calling, but it also is made clear that all believers have the liberty to come boldly to the throne of grace (Heb. 4:16); hence they too are called "a holy priesthood" (1 Pet. 2:9).

II. A High Responsibility (2:29, 30, 35). As already suggested, Eli was evidently a man of personal piety and integrity in office. We honor him for that, but we regret his failure to properly rear his sons who were to succeed him.

It is not enough to meet one phase of our responsibility before God and men, because of our faithfulness there to seek to justify ourselves elsewhere. One sometimes hears the expression, "But he is such a good man," as an excuse for failure, but it just will not do.

Eli did not reprove with his boys, but he waited until it was too late, or did it in such a way and at such a time as to be ineffective. His failure at this point is declared (v. 29) to be a placing of his sons above God in his thinking.

What a solemn warning to indulgent parents! "Not to rule and restrain our children, to give them their own way, is to honor them more than God. Ere we think it, weakness becomes wickedness in ourselves and in our children." God has "made every parent... a king in his home, that he may... command his children in the way of the Lord" (Andrew Murray).

God will not permit such sin and failure to pass unnoticed. He will set aside those who fail Him (v. 30) and bring them into judgment. He has others who are willing to serve Him (v. 35). Evidently young Samuel was the one in mind here.

It is both significant and encouraging to note that in the midst of the wicked and immoral surroundings created by Eli's sons, God had the tender vine of His own planting—the life of the boy Samuel, growing up in the temple. He was already hearing God's voice and learning to obey the call.

III. A Heavy Judgment (4:12-18). The Israelites went out to battle against the Philistines. Meeting defeat, they thought to gain victory by bringing the ark of the covenant into battle, and who had the effrontery to appear as "priests" with the ark but the wicked sons of Eli.

Swift and awful was the judgment of God. Not only was there defeat, but the ark was lost to the heathen Philistines, and the two sons of Eli were killed. When Eli heard the news of what had taken place, he too fell and died. Here was the tragic end of a life that had begun with promise, and all because of weakness, failure and sin.

There is a pointed lesson here for us. The people of Israel depended on the ark itself, an outward symbol of godliness, when there was no spiritual life in the heart—and they went down to failure. Will we go through the motions of religious exercises, talk easily of prayer, appoint men who please our itching ears (II Tim. 4:3) to preach to us, and then go on our careless, worldly, indifferent way, supposing that our formal religion will save us? Paul tells us in II Timothy 3:1-5 that "having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof" is a sign of the "last days," of "perilous times" which have come upon us. May God save us!

Any excuse you can give for not upping your payroll savings will please Hitler, Hirohito and puppet Mussolini.

MISS MARJORY FINNEY MARRIED TO T-Sgt. VINCENT RIGIO

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Finney, Detroit, Mich., are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjory Jane, formerly of this place, to Tech Sgt. Vincent A. Rigio, of this place. The marriage took place at Pyote, Texas, July 24.

Sgt. and Mrs. Rigio are now residing in Dyersburg, Tenn., where he was transferred recently.

Mrs. Rigio is a graduate of Wayne High School, Detroit, and formerly resided here with her grandmother, Mrs. W. C. Finney.

Sgt. Rigio is a son of Mrs. Vincent Rigio of this place. He graduated from the local high school and attended Cedarville College two years before enlisting in the air corps in 1940. He studied photography at Lowry Field, Denver, Colo., and later served in the South Pacific two years, returning to the U. S. in October, 1943. He was stationed at the Pyote Air Base, in Texas, before being transferred to the base photographic laboratory at an army air base at Dyersburg.

RICHARD SMALLWOOD IS THE FIRST "G. I. JIM" VICTIM FROM THIS LOCALITY

FORMER CEDARVILLIAN DROPS IN ON OLD FRIENDS

We had a very pleasant surprise on Monday when an old acquaintance, Lydia Sprout of Pittsburgh, Pa., talked in on us. Mr. Sprout is a former Cedarville boy that does not get back to his old haunts very often. He was taken "entour" about town by Dr. V. W. Iliff, who is spending the summer here. The two found a lot of new faces about town but many they once knew are no more.

Of course they found changes about the town. Some old favorite spots are no more but they also found many improvements that have been for the advancement and betterment of the community. When one returns to his old stamping grounds and finds the old school building is gone, the business houses changed, it takes a bit of time to bring about a realization that forty years or more bring changes, but it is hard to remove memory, especially the happenings and events of school days.

Mr. Sprout with his sister, Helen, and a brother Fred, have resided in Pittsburgh for many years; another brother, Lowry, resides in Atlanta, Ga., where he has a responsible position with the Southern railroad. The old town has quite a contingent in the "Smoky City", Mr. and Mrs. John Lott and Mr. James A. Gray. For many years Mr. Sprout's father was the minister at the (O. S.) Presbyterian Church, W. Xenia ave. His father died about six years ago at the age of 98 years.

derson. Supper will be served at 8:00 o'clock followed by an evening program highlighted by an address by W. A. Hammond of the Hammond Drierite Co., of Xenia. Harold Fawcett is chairman of the evening program.

The Sunday morning service is being arranged by Paul Harper, who has secured Dr. B. L. Lackey of Xenia as the morning speaker. Breakfast will be served at 8 o'clock and dinner at 12:30, following a swim at Orton Pool. The usual menu that has been served at the camp will be served by the camp cook, Mrs. Howard Hurley, namely steak for supper, sausage and pancakes for breakfast and fried chicken at dinner—plus all the other good things that go to make a well rounded meal.

James T. Anderson and Lewis Frye head the camp committee with Walter Nash, program director and Herman Eavey, camp manager. Reservations should be sent to the county agents' office not later than Friday evening.

Wide Brims Versus Little Flower Hats

Stunning Big Straw Hats Challenge Fantasies.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

It looked for a time as if the provocative little whimsical flower hats that have won their way into the very heart and sentiment of the fashion world were going to hold the center of the stage the whole spring and summer through. Now all of a sudden looms upon the millinery horizon a formidable rival in way of stunning straw hats the brims of which are growing wide, wider, wider as the season progresses. So what?

Well, with this merry warfare going on between the two, the only way to settle your own mind as to which wins is to see it that your millinery wardrobe includes both. The idea of foregoing the joy and the flattery of the whimsy little flower fantasies that have been making women look their prettiest this spring is simply unthinkable. A collection of these flowery little headpieces is none too many, for this season fashion's pathway seems literally strewn with flowers and the latest news is that milliners are selling flower hats and flower earrings to match in colors tuned to each individual costume.

The more you see of the enchanting little flower headpieces the more you want to see them, which is exactly the promise fashion holds out for spring and summer. The flat-top bands with flowers over each ear are becoming to smooth-browed youth and there is a flower medalion trim right over the forehead that is flattering to all types. It adds to the mystic beauty of these flowered confections that they are seen through a halo of colorful veiling which enters into the color scheme most artfully.

Have as many gay little flower hats as you will, but to keep pace with fashion a handsome wide-brimmed straw is a necessary luxury this season. We speak of them as a "luxury" because the vogue calls for the finer straws of quality kind. After all there's thrift and economy in buying something worthwhile, as are these broad brims, for you will find as the season advances that it will be your hand some straw with a wide and flattering brim that will be the hat you instinctively turn to when you want to be costumed and hatted with that assurance of discriminating taste that gives you police and distinction wherever you go.

"WE GET IT DONE"

"Why is there a shortage of telephone facilities?"

THE telephone business is deep in the war and getting deeper all the time.

The farther American forces advance, the more switchboards, wire and telephones they need. And those at home seem to want more, too.

Since the National Defense program started in 1940, we have supplied the communication needs of Army, Navy, war producers and most others. In all, the Bell System has increased the number of telephones in service by more than 4,500,000.

The equipment to do this came from reserves which have been used up. No more are available as practically all telephone manufacturing facilities and man power have been working to produce communication equipment for war.

But we're doing all we can to serve as many as possible as soon as possible by—

Reconditioning and using every facility capable of giving service.

Recovering facilities quickly when service is discontinued.

Converting one-party lines to serve two or more families where ever possible and necessary.

Operating central offices beyond their normal capacity.

Taking extra-good care of equipment that can't be replaced.

If you are one of the more than 60,000 persons waiting for telephone service in Ohio, we can't tell you when we will be able to serve you, but we do promise that your order will not be forgotten and will be filled in its proper turn.

Drought Sends Stock To Slaughter

Wilbur Lemon, local trucker says he never has seen so much livestock moving to market in his time as the past week. He receives calls from other truckers to take stock to different markets. Tuesday he says Washington C. H. had more cattle than was ever known in that city at one time, a large part of it dairy cows. He says he hauled cattle from one farm where the land was as bare as a paved street and the owner had to unload the livestock. The run on hogs and sheep on Tuesday was also very heavy. At 2:30 that afternoon there was more than a score of trucks loaded with livestock waiting to be unloaded at Washington with more trucks headed to that city on every road. Other markets report similar runs. Farmers had to unload or let the stock perish.

Greene Co. Cannery Face Labor Shortage

Canneries at Jamestown and Spring Valley are making an appeal for part-time services of men and women to man their canning plants this season. The appeal is voiced by J. J. Stout, manager of the Xenia office of the U. S. Employment Service, who says the Jamestown plant needs 100 workers and Spring Valley, 70. The USES office is at 19 E. Market st., Xenia.

P. M. PULLS OUT BASS THAT WEIGHED 3 3/4 POUNDS

Postmaster Ritenour caught a bass weighing 3 3/4 pounds, Monday eve. Another just over the legal size was also a victim. Both were of the wide mouth variety and were caught in the lake east of town.

"My Husband's at the Front—

I'M SAVING WASTE PAPER!"

All over the country wives and sweethearts are collecting waste paper. They understand that our fighting men desperately need this critical war material.

They are making a weekly habit of saving old newspapers, boxes, wrappings. They are not burning or destroying waste paper—they are sending it to make or wrap more than 700,000 different war articles used by our armies.

Do your part along with these patriotic women. Get your clubs, civic and church groups behind this movement. Collect waste paper—bundle it—and turn it in... and help shorten the war!
